

Surrey Young People's Fund

Helping young people gain access to training and employment

Helping to improve the lives of disadvantaged
young people

Funding is available now!

Are you aged 16-25, living in Surrey and looking for help to gain employment?

Are you unemployed, or need help with training, but motivated to get ahead?

The Surrey Young People's Fund helps young people achieve their goals to gain access to training and employment.

Grants from the Fund are typically between £50 and £500 and can fund costings such as:

- Course fees
- Childcare (for short term education or training)
- Equipment, materials or tools, work or training related clothing
- Travel costs (for education, training or employment)

Please contact the Grants Team on 01483 478092 or visit cfsurrey.org.uk and search Surrey Young People's Fund for more information.

You can also submit a quick Expression of Interest form online to start your application.

The Fund is established within the Community Foundation for Surrey, a philanthropic charity created to raise the level of giving to improve the lives of people across Surrey.

Grants are allocated from a growing number of funds set up by individuals, families, businesses and trusts to help meet local needs.
